

RCIC Family Program

Living
As A Disciple...

Name ...

...That ...

...Disciple!

Contest

Game Rules

- Team "A" and Team "B" will be designated by Coin Toss.
- The Game Moderator will begin by posing a question to Team "A" .
- Contestants of each team will confer among themselves for no longer than 30 seconds before giving an answer.
- If the response time exceeds 30 seconds the question will be directed to the opposing team.
- If an answer given by one team is incorrect, the opposing team will have one opportunity to provide the correct answer.
- Questions will alternate between "Team A" and "Team B"
- Winning Team members will each receive a coupon for one free Sunday Coffee and Donut.

Disciple #1...

“Three days after Jesus was buried, I went to the tomb with two other women to anoint Jesus’ body. But when we arrived there were two strangers in brilliant white clothing who asked us what we were doing there. They said, ‘What are you doing? Why are you looking for the living among the dead...’ I was so startled and distressed. Jesus wasn’t in the tomb and I didn’t know where he was!”

Who am I?

Disciple #2...

“People really didn’t like me much before I met Jesus. I was an opportunist – and collecting taxes for the Romans was a lucrative business for me. But then one day I met Jesus. He didn’t care what I had been doing up to that point in my life – only that I amend my life right then and there and begin to follow him. Imagine that! He just came to me one day and simply said, “Follow me.” I changed my life at that moment and decided to follow him...”

Who am I?

Disciple #3...

“I was a respected member of the Jewish community – a member of the sect called the Pharisees. At the time that I met and talked with Jesus there was a lot of tension among the Jewish authorities. I had to meet with Jesus under the cover of the darkness. I was deeply awed at his insight and wisdom. He said that what was ‘born of the flesh is flesh, but what is born of the Spirit is Spirit’ – and that we must be born again to see the Kingdom of God!”

Who am I?

Disciple #4...

"I was always a bit of a skeptic – not because I didn't want to believe. I just don't like to be taken for a fool. When the others insisted that they had seen Jesus after he had been crucified and buried, I thought they were crazy with grief. I refused to believe that Jesus had risen unless I saw him for myself – unless I put my fingers into the wounds in his hands and his side."

Who am I?

Disciple #5...

"I was not a welcome member of my town community – and rightly so. I was a short person with a tall reputation for swindling a lot of my neighbors of their belongings by overcharging their taxes. When Jesus came to town I was so excited to see him. I had heard that he welcomed everyone. The crowds were so thick however that I couldn't see above the heads of anyone. Of course, no one was going to move aside for someone like me! I found a tree near by and climbed up on a limb so that I could catch a glimpse of Jesus as he passed by. He saw me up there and grinned! He actually asked to have supper with me! With me! Everything changed that day! I became a follower of Jesus!"

Who am I?

Disciple #6...

"I was zealous for my faith! In fact, few could match my enthusiasm for my Jewish heritage. I was determined to stamp out the heretical sect of Christians! - But everything changed on my journey to Damascus. I was struck by a blinding light that spoke to me. It was Jesus! I, the most violently opposed to his following, was called by Jesus himself to become one of his followers! Since that day I have worked tirelessly to spread the gospel of Christ Jesus to the gentiles."

Who am I?

Disciple #7...

"I was a synagogue official with a young daughter. One day my daughter became very ill. I had heard of Jesus and had even heard him preach. I found Jesus and begged him to come to my daughter to heal her. Jesus agreed, but when we arrived, my servants informed us that she had died. Jesus insisted that she was only sleeping. Despite my servants derision and unbelief, he took two of his closest companions and went to my daughter and cured her!"

Who am I?

Disciple #8...

"I met Jesus one day while I was performing my daily chores. It was late and as I was working he spoke to me, a woman. I was astonished that he was speaking to me since this was a breach of custom. Then he proceeded to tell me all about myself – and all about who he was. I was astounded by him, that he could know so much about me even though we'd never met before. Certainly he must be everything he said he was: the Messiah! I ran back to town to tell everyone about him!"

Who am I?

Disciple #9...

“I had been a disciple of Christ for some time before I met Paul. After Paul’s conversion and his escape from Damascus I spoke on his behalf before the apostles in Jerusalem. Paul and I were companions in the mission to spread the gospel to the Gentiles”

Who am I?

Disciple #10...

“I was selected by the community of disciples to minister to the community. By the power and grace of the Holy Spirit I was able to work wonders and signs among the people. The Holy Spirit graced me with wisdom to debate the opponents of Christ. My contenders plotted against me and eventually I was the first to be stoned and martyred for the faith.”

Who am I?

Disciple #11...

One day, as I was relaxing in the shade of a fig tree, my friend Philip approached me to say that he had the one that Moses wrote in the Law and the Prophets. This seemed incredible to me because Philip also mentioned that this “Jesus” was from the town of Nazareth. Really?! Nazareth?! I asked Philip, “Can anything good come from Nazareth?”

Who am I?

Disciple #12...

“I am a well respected member of the community – and a secret disciple of Jesus for fear of the Jews. I asked Pilate to remove Jesus’ body from the cross so that it could be prepared for burial.”

Who am I?

Disciple #13...

"I was so happy and excited that Jesus and his friends were coming to my home. I wanted everything to be absolutely perfect. I had an entire meal planned because I knew that Jesus would be tired and hungry. With my sister to help me, I was sure that we would have everything ready for their arrival. Jesus arrived along with his companions and they sat down to relax as He continued to teach. My sister, instead of helping me, decided that she, too, would sit and listen. With so much work to do, I couldn't believe she did this! I asked the Jesus to tell her to help me, but He said that she had made the better decision – to listen to Him..."

Who am I?

Disciple #14...

"I was originally a fisherman by trade – until I met Jesus. One day, my brother and I were casting our nets into the sea. As Jesus passed by, He said "Follow Me." And we did. My brother, Simon, would later be designated the leader of our group by Jesus."

Who am I?

Tiebreaker Disciple

"I was a blind beggar in the town of Jericho. I heard Jesus coming through town one day. Having heard many stories about the miracles he performed I realized I couldn't let this opportunity pass by. I caused a commotion shouting out, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me!" Everyone treated me like I was just a nuisance and told me to be quiet. I shouted all the louder. Jesus heard me, called me over to him, and asked what I'd like him to do for me. Of course, I told him I wanted my eyesight. He told me that my faith had healed me. My eyesight returned that moment!"

Who am I?